

Module 7: Activity

Eutycus Mbuthia Wanyeki

ED01/2116/2023

School of Education, Open University of Kenya

EDU 222: Curriculum Design and Development

Dr. Zachary Njagi

2nd April, 2025

Find the web link for the following agencies and establish their legal basis in the curriculum development and fill in the table below

S. No	Agency	Website	Legal Basis
1.	Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development (KICD)	https://kicd.ac.ke/	Established under the KICD Act No. 4 of 2013.
2.	Ministry of Education	https://education.go.ke/	Governed by the Basic Education Act, 2013.
3.	Kenya National Examinations Council (KNEC)	https://www.knec.ac.ke/	Established under the KNEC Act No. 29 of 2012.
4.	Teachers Service Commission	https://www.tsc.go.ke/	Established under the TSC Act (Cap 212).
5.	Teacher Unions	https://www.knut.or.ke/	Operate under the Trade Unions Act (Cap 233).
6.	Sponsors/ stakeholders	They are many an example is: The Kenya Private Schools Association (KPSA) https://kpsa.education/ https://www.worldbank.org/	Various legal frameworks depending on the specific sponsor or stakeholder. E.g. Basic Education Act (2013) Education Act (2012) KICD Act (2013) International agreements with Kenyan government
7.	Publishers	They are several, e.g. Kenya Publishers Association (KPA) https://kenyapublishers.org/	Governed by the Copyright Act (Cap 130).